

Program aims to link countries through press collaboration, cultural exchange

(China Daily, 2018 年,

<http://www.chinadaily.com.cn/a/201806/21/WS5b2afd7ca3103349141dd706.html>)

CHINA DAILY 中国日报网

Global Edition ASIA
中文 双语 Français

HOME CHINA WORLD BUSINESS LIFESTYLE CULTURE TRAVEL WATCHTHIS SPORTS OPINION REGIONAL FORUM NEWSPAPER MOBILE

China News Society Innovation HK/Macao Cross-Straits Cover Story Photo Environment Health Military Video

• Home / China / Society

Program aims to link countries through press collaboration, cultural exchange

By Zhou Wenting in Shanghai | China Daily | Updated: 2018-06-21 09:21

Senior editors and reporters from 12 countries involved in the Belt and Road Initiative have gathered in Shanghai for a 26-day training program to gain a full understanding of China's development in the new era and exchange work experience beginning on Wednesday.

In the Dongfang Fellowship Program, the foreign journalists will participate in classes and cultural exchanges in Shanghai, Beijing and Hangzhou to learn about the country's profound changes in economic, political, cultural and ecological areas since its reform and opening-up 40 years ago.

The goal of the program is to contribute to the journalists' professional development and eventually to promote the common development of China and all other countries and regions as well as regional and world peace and development.

Xi's
Moments 学习时代

Worker treasures token of appreciation

Xi's vision helps address urgent global issues

Latest

Chinese mainland reports 374 new local confirmed COVID-19 cases

Biodiversity threatened in drought-hit Poyang Lake

Ministry ups funding for water projects